

Dr. Avita A. Usfar is the Nutrition Specialist with TNP2K. She has a background in Community Nutrition from Bogor Agriculture University and University of Indonesia, and received her doctorate degree from University of Heidelberg Germany. She has previously worked at Seameo Regional Center for Food and Nutrition-University of Indonesia, World Health Organization, and the Indonesian Danone Institute Foundation. Her topic of interest includes double burden of malnutrition, poverty, and food security, and has co-authored 10 publications in international journals. She is a guest lecturer at Seameo-UI and editorial board of international journal 'Current Obesity Reports'.

